Antonio Skoda

CAPTAIN

Croatian

Captain Antonio is an experienced Croatian captain with extensive knowledge of the Adriatic Sea and a passion for delivering exceptional guest experiences. Having built his career on both sailing and motor yachts, he has navigated a wide range of vessels, from luxury catamarans to premium motor yachts. Before joining M/Y KIMANI, Antonio served as captain of a private Princess Y75, managing all aspects of yacht operations, itinerary planning, guest relations, and crew coordination while cruising the Croatian coast. His previous experience also includes several successful seasons as skipper for luxury charter companies, where his local expertise, excellent communication skills, and in-depth knowledge of Croatia's hidden bays, islands, and gastronomy consistently exceeded guest expectations. Professional, approachable, and highly organized, Antonio is dedicated to ensuring every charter is safe, seamless, and tailored to each guest's preferences.

Jakov Iskra

COOK / STEW

Croatian

Jakov is an experienced and reliable cook with over 10 years in the hospitality industry. Jakov maintains a clean and organized galley, manages inventory, and ensures hygiene standards are met consistently. Alongside his culinary skills, Jakov is fully equipped to handle steward duties on board, such as maintaining guest cabins, cleaning, serving meals and drinks, and ensuring the yacht remains spotless and comfortable at all times. He is known for his adaptability, discretion, and strong team spirit. His dedication, attention to detail, and positive attitude make him an excellent and reliable crew member, capable of supporting both the galley and guest services to enhance the overall experience on board.

Mario Mandekic

ROTATIONAL COOK/STEW

Croatian

Mario is a reliable and versatile Cook/Stew with a strong hospitality background and a proactive approach to onboard operations. Alongside meal preparation, he is actively involved in the daily maintenance of the yacht and works closely with the Captain to ensure the vessel is operated efficiently and maintained to a high standard. Organised, adaptable, and hardworking, Mario is a dedicated team player committed to providing an exceptional onboard experience.
