

Ory

CREW PROFILE

CAPTAIN ANTE ERCEGOVIC

Ante is a highly experienced captain with a family background in maritime operations, bringing extensive expertise in navigation, vessel management, and luxury yacht operations.

He graduated cum laude from the Faculty of Maritime Studies in Split and has captained multiple yachts, including Navilux, Aiaxaia (now Omnia), and ORIY.

With years of hands-on experience in vessel construction, operation, and crew management, Ante ensures safe and efficient, charter operations. He is proficient in navigation, safety procedures, itinerary planning, and compliance with international maritime regulations. Ante works closely with both crew and guests to maintain high service standards and smooth onboard coordination.

Fluent in English and Croatian, he communicates effectively with international guests and crew members.

CHEF PETAR DIJANOVIC

Petar is an experienced chef with professional culinary training and expertise in Mediterranean cuisine.

He has prepared meals for diverse international guests, including professional athletes, and adapting menus to meet specific dietary needs. He has also lived and worked in Oslo, Norway, gaining additional international culinary experience. In 2016, he completed the course “Desserts with Style” with Daniel Roos in Stockholm.

Fluent in English, Norwegian, and Spanish, Petar communicates effectively with both guests and crew to ensure smooth kitchen operations. He maintains high hygiene standards, manages galley organization, and consistently delivers meals prepared with fresh, seasonal ingredients. Petar works efficiently under pressure and coordinates closely with the interior team to provide a professional and enjoyable dining experience.

STEWARDESS

KRISTINA FILIPOVIC

Kristina is an experienced interior professional with over 10 years in hospitality, including several years as a Restaurant Manager in Germany.

She began her yachting career in 2023 aboard Scorpios, quickly progressing from 2nd Stewardess to Chief Stewardess, and continued as Sole Stewardess on Green Ray in 2025 before joining ORIY for the 2026 season.

Fluent in English and German, and currently learning Italian, Kristina communicates effectively with guests and crew to ensure smooth onboard operations. She is skilled in table setting, service coordination, inventory management, and maintaining high standards of cleanliness and presentation.

Kristina works closely with the interior team to deliver consistent, professional service throughout each charter.

In her free time, she enjoys painting and music.

STEWARDESS

TINA PARAMAN

Tina is an interior stewardess with experience in hospitality and yachting.

She graduated in Maritime Studies in Split and has worked on several large mini cruisers as a waitress, operating routes from Opatija to Dubrovnik. Most recently, she worked aboard Gulet Pacha as a stewardess.

Tina is proficient in maintaining cleanliness and organization of interior spaces, assisting with guest service, and supporting smooth daily operations onboard. She works closely with the interior team to ensure consistent service standards and a professional onboard experience for guests.

Fluent in Croatian and English, she communicates effectively with both crew and international guests.

Interior Stewardess
VLATKA KOVACEVIC

Vlatka has worked aboard Avangard, gaining hands-on experience in maintaining interior cleanliness, assisting guests, and supporting daily onboard operations.

Her background in hospitality, including waitressing, strengthens her service skills and efficiency in high-standard environments.

She is a qualified massage therapist, providing professional treatments to enhance guest well-being. Vlatka is skilled in organizing interior spaces, managing inventory, and coordinating with the interior team to ensure smooth and consistent service throughout each charter.

Fluent in Croatian and English, she communicates effectively with both guests and crew members.

STEWARD

PETAR GRUBISA

Petar is a steward and bartender with seven years of experience in hospitality, including winter seasons in Austria and Switzerland.

He holds a diploma in F&B Management and has worked aboard Omnia before joining ORIY for the 2026 season.

He is skilled in guest service, bar management, beverage preparation, and maintaining high standards of cleanliness and presentation. Petar works closely with the interior team to ensure smooth daily operations and consistent professional service throughout each charter.

Fluent in English and conversational in German, he communicates effectively with both guests and crew.

STEWARD

KRISTIJAN UVODIC

Kristijan is a steward and bartender with over eight years of experience in hospitality, including positions aboard Admiral, Aquamarin, and Ban.

He graduated from the Tourism and Hospitality School and brings technical knowledge, efficiency, and professionalism to his roles. He is skilled in guest service, beverage preparation, bar management, and maintaining high standards of cleanliness and presentation. Kristijan works closely with the interior team to ensure smooth daily operations and consistent service throughout each charter.

Having previously worked on Omnia, he joins ORIY for the 2026 season, contributing his experience and expertise to deliver reliable and professional service onboard.

Fluent in Croatian and English, he communicates effectively with both guests and crew.

DECKHAND

DUJE NAZOR

Duje is a maritime professional with experience as a skipper, third officer on a polar cruise ship, and first officer on yachts.

He graduated from a maritime school and brings extensive nautical skills, operational knowledge, and professionalism to his role aboard ORIY.

He is skilled in deck operations, navigation, line handling, and maintenance, ensuring smooth and safe daily operations. Duje works closely with the crew to support all onboard activities and maintain high standards of safety and efficiency throughout each charter.

Fluent in English and with conversational Italian, he communicates effectively with guests and crew. Raised in a coastal town, he brings practical experience and a strong foundation in maritime operations.

DECKHAND

TONI BILIC

Toni is a disciplined and reliable deckhand with ten years of experience on traditional trabaccoli.

He is trained as a commercial specialist and has extensive practical knowledge of life at sea. Over his career, Toni has performed deck operations, maintenance, and general yacht support, ensuring vessels remain safe and organized.

He has a strong understanding of maritime procedures and is comfortable handling hands-on tasks in a busy onboard environment. Toni speaks English and Italian and has a track record of consistent, dependable work.

Onboard, he ensures all areas are tidy, organized, and fully prepared for guests. Toni excels in maintenance, housekeeping support, and smooth deck operations, contributing to an efficient and professional guest experience.

DECKHAND

LUKA PERIC

Luka is a skilled deckhand and water sports instructor with experience in tourism, guest services, and maritime operations.

He holds a degree in Nautics from the Faculty of Maritime Studies and has developed strong practical skills in yacht operations and guest support.

He has worked on private yachts and in water sports programs, gaining experience in deck maintenance, equipment handling, and organizing guest activities. Luka speaks English and Croatian and is known for his organized and reliable approach to all onboard tasks.

Onboard, he ensures smooth deck operations, maintains safety standards, and assists guests with water sports and other recreational activities, contributing to a seamless and enjoyable charter experience. In his free time, he enjoys diving.

As we approach the new season, additional crew members are still to be confirmed. Thank you for your patience as we complete our hiring.