

Conte Alberti

Ivan Zemunik

CAPTAIN

Croatian

Born in 1984, Captain Ivan has over 13 years of experience in the yachting industry. He began his career as a deckhand/engineer and, through dedication, professionalism, and hard work, steadily progressed to the position of Captain. Since then, he has consistently demonstrated strong leadership skills and a natural ability to manage and motivate his crew. A true team player with excellent interpersonal skills, Captain Ivan has earned a reputation for creating a positive and professional atmosphere on board throughout his career. As a native Croatian, he possesses extensive knowledge of the Adriatic Sea and takes great pleasure in sharing his local insight with guests, helping them discover the very best destinations and hidden gems along the Croatian coast. Captain Ivan is diligent, detail-oriented, and committed to maintaining the highest standards in every aspect of his work. With a proactive mindset and continuous willingness to expand his expertise, he ensures a seamless and memorable experience for both guests and crew alike.

Ines Zemunik

STEWARDESS

Croatian

Ines was born in Split in 1995 and has always been passionate about hospitality, travel, and working with people. After studying in Graz, Austria, she returned to Croatia and completed her degree in International Management in Hotel and Tourism in Split. She also holds certifications as a branch manager and licensed tourist guide. With six years of experience in the Adriatic yachting industry, Ines worked as a stewardess aboard the luxury motor yachts M/Y BARBARA and M/Y CASABLANCA, and later as Second Stewardess on the luxury sailing yacht DALMATINO. Throughout her career, she has developed strong organizational, communication, and guest service skills while maintaining high standards of hospitality. Motivated, hardworking, and enthusiastic, Ines is committed to delivering outstanding guest experiences and continuing her professional growth in yachting. In her free time, she enjoys hiking, travelling, exploring new cultures, and spending time in nature.

Zlatko Radman

DECKHAND

Croatian

Born in 1988, Zlatko began his yachting career in 2014 as a deckhand/engineer aboard M/Y CONTE ALBERTI, where he remained for seven successful years. He then spent the previous season on a 105 ft private motor yacht with the same owner, further expanding his experience and technical expertise. This year, Zlatko returned to M/Y CONTE ALBERTI to help make the team even stronger, more efficient, and highly service-oriented. Having grown up on an island, Zlatko has a deep connection with the sea, and many of his hobbies and interests revolve around boating and maritime life. He is enthusiastic, reliable, and thrives in a team environment, while also being fully capable of handling responsibilities independently and efficiently. His positive attitude, strong work ethic, and practical knowledge make him a valuable member of the crew.

Milivoj Grgantov

CHEF

Croatian

Milivoj was born in 1984 and brings over 22 years of professional culinary experience, with a strong focus on Mediterranean cuisine and high-end hospitality. Passionate about creating exceptional dining experiences, he combines excellent presentation skills with extensive culinary knowledge, always delivering dishes of the highest standard. Based in Split, Croatia, he is a reliable, hardworking, and highly adaptable professional with excellent communication and social skills. Calm under pressure and efficient in fast-paced environments, he thrives both independently and as part of a team. His positive attitude, professionalism, and dedication make him a valuable addition to CONTE ALBERTI.
