FLORAMYE is the first Fountain Pajot 67 permanently based in Croatia, with experienced local crew. FLORAMYE is available to charter from late May 2025.

The name FLORAMYE comes from a charming operetta Mala Floramye by Ivo Tijardović, a talented Croatian composer. Written in 1926, Tijardović masterfully blended romance, humour, and a touch of drama, all while celebrating the unique spirit of Dalmatian life during the 1920s. This operetta is particularly special for its ability to capture the beauty of the Mediterranean, with its rich cultural nuances, traditional customs, and the romantic seafaring life. Catamaran FLORAMYE is set to live up to its name and will showcase all that Dalmatia has to offer and more.

FLORAMYE has four guests cabins, one exceptional master suite as well as three double cabins. All cabins are equipped with queen sized beds and their own ensuite bathrooms. FLORAMYE also offers spacious living space with a large saloon with a galley and indoor and outdoor dining areas.

Outside the space is just as generous; a beautiful teak deck covers most of the outdoor area. At the front, apart from the always popular trampolines, there is a lowered lounge/sitting area and a welcoming jacuzzi. The flybridge provides the perfect place to enjoy cocktails while admiring the view. Both cockpit and the flybridge offer generous areas for dining and lounging.

The crew of three (captain, deckhand, chef) are all Croatian, led by captain Nino Barzic. Nino is local, an islander with a great knowledge of the area and a true sailing expert. He is professional, intuitive, with an aura of calm.

FLORAMYE is elegant and stylish. Everything has been thought
