Antonija Papak

HOSTESS

Croatian

The passion for the sea led Antonija to dedicate much of her teenage years to rowing, a sport that taught her discipline, confidence, and resilience. With many years of experience in the hospitality industry, she has become highly sociable and communicative. During this time, she also discovered her love for cooking. Outside of work, she enjoys spending time in nature with her dogs, finding joy in long walks and the outdoors. She considers herself friendly, well-organized, and a true team player. Her dedication and potential were soon recognized, leading her to the role of hostess aboard, and now she has already gained valuable experience and knowledge in the nautical tourism industry, and continues to grow professionally with every new charter.
