

Lady Gita

CUSTOM BUILT

Antonio Kovic

CAPTAIN

Croatian

Toni has painstakingly crafted one of the most distinctive vessels in the Adriatic. He has handpicked a crew to meet his exacting standards and eagerly anticipates welcoming guests aboard the Lady Gita. Fluent in English, Toni is a superb organizer and a consummate professional who is wholly devoted to ensuring the utmost comfort and satisfaction of his guests. His exceptional communication skills, extensive experience, and intimate knowledge of every nook and cranny of the Adriatic make him an engaging conversationalist, always ready for stimulating discussions and hearty laughter. Before you have the pleasure of meeting him in person, here are a few fascinating insights into Toni's life: his greatest love is his beloved daughter, Gita, after whom he named his exquisite yacht. When he's not spending quality time with his family, Toni indulges in his passions for photography, music, and sports. His musical preference leans towards rock, his favorite book is "One Hundred Years of Solitude," and he holds the film "As Good as It Gets" dear to his heart.

Petar Ivcevic

CHEF

Croatian

Petar was born in Karvina, Czech Republic, and lives in Split, Croatia. A graduate of the Zadar Vocational School, he began his maritime career in 1990, working as a waiter before becoming a Chef. He has served on major cruise lines such as Royal Caribbean, Festival Cruises, and Sun Cruises, where he refined his culinary skills and learned Italian alongside English. For the past seven years, Petar has been a Chef on deluxe yachts with Katarina-Line, earning the title Best Chef in the Fleet for three consecutive years and creating menus for top-category vessels. Passionate about healthy living, he enjoys running, yoga, and boxing, and is a non-smoker.

Goran Bajric

CHIEF ENGINEER

Croatian

Goran's heart belongs to the sea, and he can't envision himself pursuing any other career besides sailing and working on yachts. He completed his education at the Maritime High School in Split, after which he embarked on a journey to accumulate valuable experience in the world of yachting. In addition to his wealth of experience, Goran possesses an unwavering dedication and a highly professional demeanor. What truly sets him apart, however, is his exceptional communication skills and easygoing nature. He thrives in the social dimension of yacht life, relishing the active and engaging work environment it offers. During his leisure hours, Goran enjoys watching movies and listening to music.

Karlo Kumric

DECKHAND

Croatian

Karlo is a seasoned sailor who brings over a decade of experience in the charter yacht industry. Having previously worked alongside Captain Toni on another yacht, he proudly rejoined the Lady Gita crew for the 2025 season — making him both a new and familiar face on board. His extensive background spans navigation, mechanical skills, and delivering outstanding service to guests. With previous roles as both deckhand and steward/bartender on smaller yachts, Karlo is skilled at creating a warm, welcoming atmosphere on board. Passionate about people and known for his reliability, Karlo is a trusted and valued member of the Lady Gita team.

Stipe Ercegovac

DECKHAND

Croatian

Stipe, boasting a decade of experience on mini cruise ships, has cultivated a profound passion for the role of a deckhand. His journeys have taken him far and wide across the picturesque Adriatic Sea, imparting him with a wealth of knowledge about the coastal regions. Stipe initially completed his education at Craft High School in Split and subsequently dedicated himself to honing his skills as a proficient deckhand. What sets Stipe apart is his relaxed and easygoing nature, making him a natural at connecting with people. He eagerly anticipates embarking on new adventures in the maritime world. During his leisure hours, you'll often find Stipe indulging in his love for football and video games.

Marina Saskor

STEWARDESS

Croatian

Marina graduated from the High School for Hospitality and Tourism and has built extensive experience across restaurants, hotels, and travel agencies. After four years in Ireland, she joined crewed charter yachts in Croatia, where she discovered her true passion for personalized guest service at sea. Known for her diligence, tact, and attention to detail, Marina has earned praise from both guests and colleagues. Personally selected by Captain Toni, she is a valued hostess on Lady Gita. Fluent in three languages and naturally cheerful, she brings warmth and professionalism to every voyage. In her free time, she enjoys reading, movies, and traveling.

Andrea Ercegovic

STEWARDESS

Croatian

Andrea is completing her degree in Financial Management at the Faculty of Economics, Business, and Tourism in Split. She gained valuable experience working with people, including caring for a child with special needs and working at a local Tourist Office, and has spent the past four summers as a stewardess on mini-cruisers such as Esperanza, developing strong communication, organization, and teamwork skills. Passionate about dance and travel, she has been an active member of KUD Dalmacija for nearly 12 years, performing internationally and combining her love of culture, movement, and exploration.

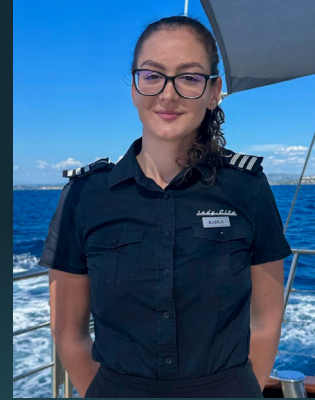

Nikolina Ancic

STEWARDESS

Croatian

Nikolina is a dedicated and enthusiastic stewardess with a strong background in guest service, housekeeping, and high-end hospitality. With several seasons of experience on both private and busy charter yachts, she joins Lady Gita bringing professionalism, warmth, and a genuine passion for her role. Before joining Lady Gita, Nikolina worked aboard other 48-meter charter yachts, where she was part of a small, fast-paced interior team handling back-to-back charters. Her responsibilities included guest service, table setting and decoration, cocktail preparation, housekeeping, laundry, and provisioning — all executed with a high level of detail and care. Nikolina's positive attitude, attention to detail, and love for working with people make her a perfect fit for the Lady Gita team. She is committed to ensuring guests enjoy a relaxed, luxurious, and memorable experience throughout their time on board.

Karla Gavranovic

STEWARDESS

Croatian

Karla is currently pursuing a degree in Faculty of Civil Engineering in Split. Karla describes herself as open-minded, resourceful, and eager to collaborate with crew and the guests. Her enthusiasm for meeting new people and embracing challenges makes her an ideal fit for the dynamic environment onboard LADY GITA. Upon joining this year the crew of Lady Gita, Karla initially had reservations about her ability to adapt to the maritime lifestyle. However, she swiftly discovered her deep affection for the sea. Infusing her background in hospitality with her newfound love for the sea, Karla is committed to cultivating a warm and welcoming environment for both the crew and guests. Her empathy and dedication ensure that every journey on board the Lady Gita is an unforgettable experience for all involved.
