

NOCTURNO

CREW PROFILE

DUJE ERCEGOVIĆ - CAPTAIN

Captain Duje was born in 1989 in Split into a family with over 40 years long tradition of maritime enterprise.

Before Nocturno, he was the captain of another family boat. He studied at the Faculty of Maritime Studies in Split. He also has experience as an officer on LNG.

He is very athletic; in his free time, his passions are spearfishing and football. He plays in the position of the defender in the local football club and Duje is an amiable and easy-going person, a very confident who will do everything to make your cruise unforgettable. He and the Nocturno crew will be at your disposal during your memorable cruising.

Stipe, captain's younger brother was born in Split in 1999., and same like his older brother he has spent most of his younger days around sea and boats or sailing with his father.

After graduating from high school, he decided to join his brother on a boat, considering it the best way to gain life and work experience, and from this season, he will be with his brother on his new boat.

When he is not sailing on the sea surface, he is under the sea – diving. This is his way to relax and connect with the sea on a special way. During the winter he remains active and engages in various recreational sports such as futsal, basketball and aerosol.

While aboard Stipe is always there for all the clients needs. He will welcome you with the smile on his face, ready to be at your service - whether you need a towel when going out of the sea, a tender ride or some new water toy.

CHIEF MATE

ANDRIJA KATUŠIĆ – DECKHAND

Born into a naval family, Andrija spent much of his childhood watching his grandfather and father set sail for the blue horizon.

He listened attentively to their stories and experiences and slowly fell in love with sailors' lives. After graduating from the Technical Highschool of Engineering and Mechatronics, Andrija decided to follow his family legacy.

He joined the yachting industry in 2018 and has worked on several vessels, including a 31 meters mini cruiser Luna, also owned by the Ercegović family. His natural navigation and mechanical skills, combined with his easy-going character, make him a true asset to the Nocturno family.

Not only is he a skilled sailor, but he is also a highly skilled stonemason.

In his spare time, 23-year-old Andrija enjoys fishing and playing football.

After graduating from Maritime High School, 29-year-old Mario was pursuing a professional football career before he decided to enter the yachting industry.

His great sense of adventure and love for the sea led him into the yachting world, where he found his new passion and proved himself a very skilled sailor, reliable colleague, and great worker.

He is joining Nocturno as a second mate after performing that role flawlessly on other motor sailers.

His former colleagues describe him as a great team player, an ever-smiling, easy-going person.

DALIBOR PERINČIĆ

CHEF

Dalibor is genuinely passionate about gastronomy, which awakens his creativity and imagination!

He has been attracted to cooking since childhood, but he only discovered his love for gastronomy at the High Catering School. His time there allowed him to hone creative ideas and express himself through cooking. He was able to learn about different cuisines and experiment with ingredients to bring out the best flavors. At that time, Dalibor developed a strong affinity for cooking.

Following his dreams, Dalibor had the opportunity to continue his education in gastronomy. He took advantage of this opportunity by enrolling in a master's course, which required dedication and hard work, but paid off in the end.

During the course, he gained even more knowledge about regional cuisines while developing specialized skills such as plate techniques and food presentation methods. This experience proved invaluable when it came time to cook professionally; it gave him the confidence and expertise to create amazing dishes everyone could enjoy!

He makes the most of his downtime by enjoying quality moments with those he loves and exploring new places.

MIJO MANDURIĆ – SOUS CHEF

Mijo Mandurić is a very experienced 30-year-old sous chef from Split who was part of the Ercegović crew family long before joining the Nocturno family.

Nothing delights him more than exploring new culinary styles and finding new ways to prepare food, so he takes every opportunity to travel abroad and attend culinary classes.

When he is not exploring what's new in the world of pots and pans, Mijo loves to play football in a local football club, where he has shown excellent skills and won numerous awards with his playmates.

His former colleagues describe him as hardworking yet easy-going, adventurous yet reliable.
