Špiro Rakuljić

Captain - Croatian

Špiro Rakuljić is the Captain and owner of the luxurious 40m motor sailer "Anetta." With a family history in the maritime industry dating back to the early 20th century, Špiro's passion for sailing and cruising runs deep. He holds two Masters degrees from the Maritime Faculty at the University of Split, providing him with a strong educational foundation in the field. Špiro's career in yachting began from a young age, spending his summer breaks with his father on various ships. He has worked as a captain on different types of ships, ranging from 25m to 55m in length, and has recently worked on passenger cruise ships, further expanding his expertise in the industry. Špiro's qualifications and strengths in yacht chartering lie not only in his technical skills but also in his working ethic and dedication to showcasing the finest of what Croatia has to offer to charterers. His calmness, eagerness to learn, and excellent communication with clients are his greatest strengths when it comes to working on a yacht charter. During his leisure time, Špiro enjoys various hobbies that align with his adventurous spirit, such as traveling, hiking, snowboarding, and fishing. His dedication to guest satisfaction, enthusiasm for exploration, and commitment to delivering outstanding service make him a highly sought-after yacht charter captain. With his extensive experience, qualifications, and diverse skill set, Špiro Rakuljić is well-equipped to offer an exceptional charter experience on his luxurious motor sailer, "Anetta."
