Marin Zivkovic

CAPTAIN

Croatian

Having grown up by the sea, he developed a deep appreciation for its beauty and the underwater world from an early age, which inspired and shaped his career aspirations. Following elementary school, Marin enrolled in a maritime high school with a clear ambition to pursue a career at sea. After completing the education, he gained valuable hands-on experience working at a gas station for ships, where he strengthened his skills in teamwork, customer service, and communication. Known for being responsible, communicative, and eager to embrace new experiences and challenges, Marin is enthusiastic about continuing to grow and gain further experience in the maritime industry.
