

Bellkara

Mario Kozulic

CAPTAIN

Croatian

Mario was born in Kutina and raised in Zadar and on the island of Murter, where his deep connection to the sea began at an early age. After graduating from secondary tourism school, he started his maritime career as a captain on official vessels for ACI marinas in Jezera, Piškera, and Žut. He has since gained extensive experience skippering both sailing and motor yachts. For the past 11 years, Mario has been the captain of the sailing yacht Bellkara, where he earned recognition for his professionalism, calm leadership, and commitment to delivering outstanding guest experiences. His strong work ethic and ability to anticipate and meet guest needs make him a trusted and valued member of any crew. A passionate seaman even off duty, Mario enjoys fishing, spearfishing, windsurfing, and sailing in his free time.

Domagoj Kalauz

DECKHAND

Croatian

Domagoj began his career in hospitality as a waiter and restaurant manager in the Šibenik region and holds a sommelier certification from the Croatian Sommelier Club. Over the last four years, he has served as a bosun on a 40-meter yacht, where he ensures a clean and safe environment for guests and crew alike. His passion for the sea and working with people naturally led him to the yachting industry. One of the most defining moments in his career was the decision to align his work with what truly fulfills him. After exploring various jobs, he realized that pursuing a path that brings him joy would not only enrich his life but also enhance his motivation and commitment. He approaches challenges with open communication, respect, and a calm demeanor, making him a reliable and steady presence on board. In his free time, he enjoys exploring his passion for wine through travel and tastings, and he brings a unique personal touch to the crew with his love of singing.

Mia Kitarovic

HOSTESS

Croatian

Mia is a communicative and adaptable team member with a strong background in hospitality and tourism. She holds a degree in Hotel Management and is currently advancing her studies in Tourism Management at the Polytechnic of Šibenik. Her previous roles as a waitress, shop assistant, and receptionist have equipped her with valuable experience in dynamic, guest-focused settings. Mia is known for her warm personality and ability to easily connect with guests of all ages, creating a welcoming and comfortable onboard atmosphere. Fluent in Croatian and English, with basic knowledge of Italian and German, Mia brings a multilingual advantage to her role. Her proactive nature, attention to detail, and enthusiasm for service make her a reliable and energetic addition to any crew.