Ivan Boduljak

CAPTAIN

Croatian

Ivan Boduljak hails from the scenic region of Vrljika, Croatia, and grew up near the picturesque Croatian coast, where his love for the sea naturally evolved into a lifelong career. With a passion for sailing, Ivan has accumulated seven years of professional experience as a skipper, working with prestigious charter companies across Croatia, the British Virgin Islands, the Bahamas, and Tahiti. Most recently, he has excelled as a crewed captain in both Croatia and the BVI, delivering personalized and exceptional sailing experiences. Ivan's expertise spans navigation, piloting, yacht operation, and maintenance. He is highly experienced in managing yachts of various sizes, performing engine checks, maintaining safety equipment, and organizing activities and excursions, always offering guests local insights to enrich their journey. Prior to his charter career, Ivan completed numerous boat deliveries across the Mediterranean and Caribbean, gaining invaluable experience on diverse routes and vessels. His credentials include Yacht Master 100 BT, Boatmaster Licence 100 BVI, and Basic Safety Training, reflecting his professional competence and dedication. Fluent in English and conversational in German, Ivan combines technical skill with excellent communication, ensuring guests feel comfortable and well-cared-for aboard. His professionalism, attention to detail, and passion for sailing guarantee a truly memorable yachting experience for all who sail with him.
