Goran is a schooled chef and cooking is still a passion which he enjoys in his spare time. He also qualified as a technician from Engineering school and has a vast experience in carpentry, making him a valuable crew member all year round, essential for the winter maintenance and preparations for the season.

Always smiling and with a great sense for team effort, Goran will join the rest of the Omnia crew to ensure your charter experience is beyond incredible

He is fluent in English and when not at sea he loves to spend his time up in the mountains, hiking and hanging out with his friends.

Name: Petar Vlask

Position: Chef

Nationality: Croatian

Description:

After finishing culinary school, Petar honed his skills in some of the most well-known restaurants in the region before deciding to combine his passions for the sea and cooking to pursue a career in the yachting industry. Petar describes his cooking style as modern traditional, best compared to the French Bistro scene which emphasises simple dishes that highlight the original flavours of the ingredients. As he puts it "Mediterranean cuisine is more than food, it's a lifestyle, and I love showcasing the best of our local, fresh products and cuisine to my guests." Petar is an ambitious and professional chef with a creative flair, and a friendly attitude. As a chef, Petar is always looking for new ways to develop his craft, in 2022, he completed two courses in Mediterranean Culinary Arts, 'The Best of Alain Ducasse'. Petar enjoys the freedom of creating unique menus and engaging with guests to create a bespoke gastronomy experience – something he believes is the greatest joy of working in the yachting industry. Petar is fluent in English, and he spends his spare time in nature, cooking, and volunteering in the Chef's Association where he teaches culinary workshops for kids and amateurs. Petar is looking forward to delighting guests aboard OMNIA this season.
