

Crew

VALENTINA II

Marko Mrdak

Captain

Marko's formative years were shaped in a quaint coastal town along the Montenegrin coast. While pursuing his studies in maritime engineering, he embarked on his journey into the yachting industry as a deckhand. It was in 2014 that he took on his inaugural role as a captain, steering a 24-meter motor yacht. Since then, his voyages have predominantly traversed the picturesque Adriatic coast, uncovering all of its hidden treasures along the shores of Montenegro and Croatia. Marko's exceptional qualities include his innate kindness and unwavering dedication to ensuring a memorable experience for guests on board. Anyone who chooses to spend their holiday on the motor yacht Valentina II is bound to feel truly special, thanks to his meticulous care and commitment.

Languages: English, Montenegrin

Zorica Micanovic

Chef

Following her culinary school graduation, Zorica discovered her deep-seated love and passion for the culinary arts. Her journey led her to gain extensive experience as a chef in various restaurants across the globe. Two years ago, she made a life-changing decision to embark on a career in the yachting industry as a Chef, and it was a love affair that began to flourish. Zorica specializes in crafting delectable and sustainable green cuisine, offering a unique fusion of innovative dishes alongside traditional Mediterranean fare. When Zorica steps away from the kitchen, you'll often find her exploring the great outdoors through hiking or embracing tranquility with yoga.

Languages: English, Croatian

Crew

Masa Scekcic

Stewardess

Masa's roots trace back to Tivat, where she completed her high school education. She pursued her passion for Chemical Engineering, and during summer breaks, she embarked on her journey in the yachting industry, initially as a junior stewardess. Last year marked the beginning of Masa's full-time commitment to motor yachts as a Stewardess. In her leisure hours, you'll often find her immersed in her love for music, playing the flute, exploring new destinations through travel, and basking in the serenity of the sea. Masa thrives on challenges and takes immense pride in delivering impeccable service, dedicating herself to ensuring that your time onboard is nothing short of flawless.

Languages: English, Montenegrin

Krsto Janovic

Deckhand

Krsto's formative years were spent in proximity to a shipyard in Montenegro, an experience that ignited a profound passion for the sea and the world of yachting. He successfully completed his education in marine engineering and envisions a promising future within the yachting industry. His journey in the yachting domain commenced in recent years when he became a valued member of a bustling charter yacht crew in Greece. During his leisure hours, one can often find him engaged in various sporting activities, such as tennis and basketball.

Languages: English, Montenegrin

VALENTINA II

