

CREW PROFILE

SPICE OF LIFE II PRINCESS V65

Captain ALEKSANDAR SOLARIĆ

Nationality Croatian

Aleksandar Solaric was born in Split, Croatia.

He completed his education at the Surveyor Geodesy High School and further specialized in marina, harbor, and yacht management at Marine College in Split.

Aleksandar has extensive experience in yacht and sailing boat transfers across the Mediterranean and Adriatic Seas, often undertaking solo sails lasting 24 to 48 hours.

He also served as the chef on an explorer ship owned by the Croatian Hydrographic Institute.

His career includes freelancing as a captain on various sailing boats, catamarans, and yachts, such as the Princess 52 Fly, Sunseeker 62 Manhattan, Vintage Riva Super America 55, Princess V72, Fairline 50, and Sunseeker 86, both in private and charter capacities.

Aleksandar's skill set includes culinary arts, woodworking, working with fiberglass, and mechanical work.

He possesses extraordinary knowledge of the Adriatic Sea, including its hidden spots, bays, coves, marinas, and restaurants.

He is fluent in English and has an intermediate level of Italian.

Hostess VERONIKA MUSURA

Nationality Croatian

Veronika is a dedicated and professional individual, born in Split.

She has experience working as a hostess on a boat (from 2021), where she excelled in cooking, maintaining cleanliness, and ensuring guest satisfaction.

Her meticulous nature, agility, and professional athletic training further enhance her capabilities.

Veronika is committed to providing expert and detailed service in all her endeavors.

She is fluent in English and basic in German.