

CREW PROFILE

JOLIDOR SQUADRON 78

Captain TONI BERKET

Nationality Croatian

Toni was born and raised in Trogir, a charming medieval town nestled in the heart of the Adriatic. From a young age, he developed a deep connection to the sea, assisting his father in building a family boat, with which they sailed the Adriatic in the years that followed. After completing his education, Toni entered the nautical industry in his early twenties. Driven by his experience, knowledge, and passion for the sea and boats, he quickly rose through the ranks, starting as a boat cleaner and eventually becoming the lead skipper at a charter company. Over the course of his career, he has gained extensive experience in nearly every aspect of the nautical world—from working at marina receptions, to boat cleaning, renting, and maintenance, to serving as a professional skipper and diving instructor for beginners. For the past eight years, he has worked as a captain. Throughout his career, Toni has had the opportunity to navigate the entire Adriatic, as well as explore Montenegro, Greece, and Italy. A passionate lover of nature and travel, he enjoys hiking and diving in his free time. With a fondness for music, good food, and wine, Toni is always happy to offer advice on Croatian gastronomy.

Qualifications:

Yacht Master 100 GT

Boat skipper 30 GT

GMDSS (Non-limitations)

STCW IV/2 (D2)

Open Water Diving Licence

Stewardess REA RABADAN

Nationality Croatian

Rea has been a dedicated hostess for luxury brands since 2010 and has been working aboard yachts since 2018. Originally from Split, she feels completely at home by the sea and enjoys working on yachts while being surrounded by joyful people. Passionate about her work, Rea delights in cooking traditional Dalmatian dishes, sailing, and practicing yoga. Her colleagues describe her as ambitious, patient, open-minded, and cheerful. She is eager to embrace new and exciting experiences throughout the summer season.

Deckhand NENO COCE

Nationality Croatian

Born and raised in the charming coastal town of Trogir, he developed a deep love for the sea from a young age through his passion for scuba diving and fishing. After graduating from the Nautical High School in Split, he embarked on a career as a seaman, navigating a variety of locations from South America to Europe and the Far East. At home, he worked with a sailing boat charter company and as a skipper, leading tours on large speedboats across the Central and South Adriatic. Last season, he transitioned into the yachting industry, beginning his career as a Deckhand. Throughout his professional journey, every role he's taken has been closely tied to his love for the sea and the world of nautical adventure. An avid nature enthusiast, he enjoys traveling, fishing, spearfishing, and cooking. He's also a fantastic resource for anyone looking to learn about Croatian and Italian cuisine, offering expert tips and insights.